Cloze Activity for Our Lady of Guadalupe

In the middle of December, 1531, our Blessed Mother appeared to St. Juan Diego, a native Mexican. She petitioned for a chapel to be built by the bishop for her honor, and so, St. Juan Diego went to the bishop to get an answer for her desire. However, the bishop, Juan Zumarraga asked for a sign that this was really a request from the Blessed Mother. Then, St. Juan Diego went back to Mary, and she gave him roses, which generally didn't bloom in December. He took them to the bishop, and when he took them out of his cloak, a picture of Mary was left on the fabric, which is still viewable in Mexico to this day. The picture has many hidden symbols, and has been the subject of a lot of study for many years.
